Bonjour Victor, The use of vous does not automatically mean “formal” – it can also be used as a sign of respect. A perfect example of this is an elderly person talking to a young child. The elderly person will certainly use tu because of the child’s age, but that doesn’t mean they’ll necessarily use informal language to go with it. They can show respect by using formal structures ...

As an extra thing here - I just found that if you want to attribute the site name as author (for example if I wanted to say that the author of this page was 'Stack Overflow' it's best to put 'Stack Overflow' as the `key` field, rather than the 'author' field. Because then latex formats as 'Stack Overflow' and not 'S. Overflow'.
