Medicine Buddha Teachings. According to the teachings of the Buddha Shakyamuni, recorded in the Sutra on Entering the Womb, there are four classes of illness. The first includes illnesses which are relatively inconsequential, and from these illnesses one will recover whether or not one takes medicines. The second class of illness includes more serious, even dangerous, illnesses, but if one takes the appropriate medicines, one will recover from these as well.

The Medicine Buddha practice is a powerful aid to spiritual development, especially to those who are sick or those who choose to heal the sick and I heartily recommend this book to anyone who wishes to study or do Medicine Buddha practice. However, the practice can only realistically be done by those who have had the correct initiations.
