About six weeks ago, I released the first book in my new post-apocalyptic series, The Day After Never - Blood Honor, and it promptly sold a boatload and garnered some of the strongest reviews ever. Now it's time for the second in the series: Purgatory Road. In which my epic saga in the dystopian badlands continues. I'm finishing up second draft of the third in the series, Covenant, as we speak, and it's turned out very different than I originally thought it would - so much so that ...

Day After Never is a supreme beginning to this (Blood Honor) apocalyptic series. Usually, I am engrossed in the Zombie Apocalypse and was hesitant to give books focused on an apocalypse without them (my endeared, stinky flesh eating creepers) a try. Well, glad I got over that mindset because Russell Blake brings it!
