David lost his sexual potency, and therefore his political power, in old age. In a palace coup Bathsheba and her adviser Nathan manoeuvred to secure the throne for Solomon, even though there was an older, more popular brother who was expected to succeed King David. Solomon took the throne, honored his mother, and was advised by her.

Ken Hensley: A King Without A Throne Lyrics

But if you really want to stick with this “content is king” thing, let’s see if we can tease out the analogy a bit. Great content cannot be king without more. Why? Because it has no kingdom. It may be of royal birth, but it’s not on the throne. In fact, the throne is ruthlessly occupied by Queen Inattention.
